

Job Description – Stellar Industries, Inc.

Title: Truck Assembler

Reports to: Lead Person for Truck Assembly and Assembly Supervisor

Job purpose: Assemble Mechanic/ Farm Fleet trucks or other work as directed by Lead Person or Supervisor.

Key responsibilities and accountabilities:

1. Be capable of performing all aspects of the Truck Assembly area, working with other employees as part of a team, and be prompt and on time daily for work.
2. Willingness to take direction from area supervision and follow that direction.
3. Be capable of reading blue prints and understanding them and other technical documents required by the job of Truck Assembler.
4. May be required to complete an internal welder-training program and perform weld operations as part of job responsibilities.
5. Have the ability and desire to become efficient with mechanical equipment, and learn all aspects of job as required.
6. Continually demonstrates a productive and non-disruptive work ethic.
7. Works in such a way as to create no or limited scrap or rework and works to continually improve quality level.
8. Follows all company safety rules as laid out in the company safety manual and all other company policies.
9. Maintain company equipment and work areas in a clean and orderly manner.
10. Be able to provide all of the proper tooling and other equipment as specified to fulfill basic job requirements.
11. Continually strive to improve in all aspects of job requirements.

Person-profile template:

- Works well as team member
- Able to follow orders of supervisor
- Specific Job Skills
- Computer Skills
- Read blueprints and other documents
- Have mechanical skills.

An example is shown here for the role above:

Person profile -Truck Assembly

Personality: Self-motivated, with a positive outlook, and a clear focus on high quality and safety. Is able to get along with others and be a team player.

Physical Requirements: Be able to work in crouched position at times, crawl under trucks, climb ladders, and stand on concrete floors for long periods as needed to do various job tasks. Be able to lift a maximum of 50 lbs. at times as required by job. For more specific physical requirements see reverse side.

Specific Job Skills: Having some basic hydraulic, electrical, welding, and mechanical aptitude helpful.

Computer skills: Basic computer skills are a definite plus but not necessary.

Literacy and Numeric: Able to read blueprints, various types of measuring devices.

Additional Physical requirements

STANDING/WALKING

Position will require standing on a concrete floor all day with the exception of two 12-minute breaks and a ½ hour lunch.

LIFTING /CARRYING

The heaviest amount of lift will be 50# all assembly bays have crane hoists that are required to be used for any pieces exceeding that weight.

- Most objects being lift will be lifted approximately from floor to waste. (36")

SITTING

None to very limited.

CLIMBING

Some assembly areas require climbing stairs while carrying small parts. Climbing a 5' to 6' ladder is also required.

PUSH/PULL

Position requires being able to push/pull 2 and 4 wheel carts weighing approx. 200#.

CROUCHING/SQUATING/KNEELING

Putting on hoses and other assembly functions will require crouching, squatting, and kneeling.

BALANCE

Good balance is required to do many of the assembly functions.

CRAWLING

Job duties may require a minimum amount of crawling.

REACHING

Position requires reaching approximately 3' while handling equipment and parts that may weigh approximately 10#.

GRASPING/HANDLING

Grasping and pinching is required to operate all equipment necessary to perform job functions. Good hand dexterity is required to move hands into different positions.

VISION

Good vision is required for reading blue prints and welding.

TASTE/SMELL

Taste or smelling to help detect if something is burning or possibly leaking.

HEARING

Being able to hear instructions is an important part of the job.

NOTE: The Company has a program for supplying required safety equipment. Assemblers are required to furnish their own basic tools required for the job.

Please drop off or send an application outlining your experience and qualifications to Stellar Industries:

Human Resources
Stellar Industries, Inc.
190 State Street – PO Box 169
Garner, IA 50438

E-mail hr@stellarindustries.com if you have any questions